IMPORTANT NOTES

1. Candidates shall read and comply with the Examination Handbook and IFS Online Enrolment Instructions for the Insurance Intermediaries Qualifying Examination.
2. According to the Examination Handbook :
 - a) Once the enrolment is submitted, for whatever reason, any requests for re-scheduling and/or cancellation will not be entertained. Fees paid are not refundable or transferable.
 - b) Candidates are requested to arrive at the examination centre on time. No candidate will be admitted to the examination centre 15 minutes after the commencement of the examination, and such candidates will be regarded as “Absent”. In accordance with IFS NOTICE NO. 08/2020-IFS, Candidates with unauthorized absence have not been allowed to re-register for the IIQE within one month of the examination. Afterwards, if absentees, excluding those under extenuating circumstances, are required to pay double of the examination fee to re-register for the same module of examination.
3. According to the Examination Handbook and IFS Online Enrolment Instructions, applicants may print the Receipt and Admission Form via “Exam Record Enquiry” repeatedly before the examination; but after the examination, if applicants request a re-issued copy of the receipts, results and certificates, applicants are required to apply in person at the IFS and shall pay the corresponding application handling fee.
4. Since 2002, the Monetary Authority of Macau (AMCM) has entrusted the Macau Institute of Financial Services (IFS) to organise the IIQE. I acknowledge and consent to the IFS sharing my personal data and examination results with the AMCM.

I hereby declare that I have read, understood and complied with the above-mentioned “Important Notes”.
